

Lauge N. Skovgaard Poulsen, PhD (LSE)

University College London
School of Public Policy
29/31 Tavistock Square
London, WC1H 9QU
l.poulsen@ucl.ac.uk

Full CV available upon request.

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Department of Political Science, University College London
Senior Lecturer	2016-
Director of Graduate Studies	2015-
Lecturer	2014-2016
Postdoctoral Fellow, Nuffield College, University of Oxford	2012-2014
Fellow in International Political Economy, London School of Economics	2011-2012

OTHER APPOINTMENTS

Academic Advisor on Trade Policy Development, Foreign & Commonwealth Office	2017-
---	-------

VISITING APPOINTMENTS

Melbourne Law School	2018
Global Economic Governance Program, University of Oxford	2014-
Economic Studies Program, The Brookings Institution	2009

BOOKS

The Political Economy of the Investment Treaty Regime.

Oxford University Press, 2017. With Michael Waibel and Jonathan Bonnitcha.

Bounded Rationality and Economic Diplomacy: The Politics of Investment Treaties in Developing Countries.

Cambridge University Press, 2015. Paperback 2017.

- Winner of the International Studies Association's inaugural Best Book Award for International Political Economy.

ARTICLES (selected)

Legalization, Diplomacy, and Development

World Development, 107, 2018. With Geoffrey Gertz and Srividya Jandhyala.

Diplomats Want Treaties: Diplomatic Agendas and Perks in the Investment Regime.

Journal of International Dispute Settlement, 7(1) 2016. With Emma Aisbett.

States as Foreign Investors: Diplomatic Disputes and Legal Fictions.

ICSID Review – Foreign Investment Law Journal, 31(1) 2016.

Bounded Rationality and the Diffusion of Modern Investment Treaties.

International Studies Quarterly, 58(1) 2014.

When the Claim Hits: Bilateral Investment Treaties and Bounded Rational Learning.

World Politics, 65(2) 2013. With Emma Aisbett.

POLICY

Given expert testimonies for parliamentary committees in the UK and abroad.

Advisory work for UK Department for Business, Innovation & Skills, Ethiopian Investment Agency, European Commission (DG Trade), Swiss Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Routinely invited to give talks to policy-makers in developed and developing countries.